

EXPLORE!

WEDNESDAYS

IN NATURE LAB

statemuseumpa.org

HARRISBURG TO NYC

TRAIN GAME

Travel on the PRR GG1

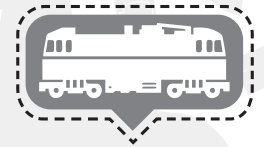

The Pennsylvania Railroad GG1 was the premier electric locomotive from 1934-1980. Both passengers and freight traveled from Harrisburg, Philadelphia, New York, and Washington DC. Travel along the tracks to see who can get to from Harrisburg to New York first.

Instruction:

Who can travel the Keystone Corridor the quickest? Roll one dice and count the railroad ties. Along the way you will encounter stops that might help get you there quicker or might slow your trip down.

Players.

Travel the Keystone Corridor

You arrived early, move ahead 2 ties

Forgot your backpack, go back 2 ties

You found a great seat, move ahead 1 tie

No one at Coatesville, move ahead 1 tie

Trash on the track, go back 1 tie

Picked up speed, move ahead 2 ties

Long stop at Lancaster, go back 2 ties

Construction at Paoli, go back 2 ties

Philadelphia is crowded, go back 3 ties

Trenton is quick today, move ahead 4 ties

FINISH NYC

Electric lines down at New Brunswick, go back 1 tie

Fast speeds to Penn Station, move ahead 3 ties

NEW YORK CITY