

FRANKLIN

FACTS

Benjamin Franklin was not just an inventor. Throughout his life, Franklin had many careers and interests.

PRINTING PRESS

Franklin was a printer. He printed his own newspaper, The Pennsylvania Gazette. He printed books like Poor Richard's Almanac, and he even printed Pennsylvania's money.

BOOK

Franklin was a writer. He wrote about the weather, nature, and his inventions and experiments. He even wrote a book about his own life.

DECLARATION

As a delegate from Pennsylvania, Franklin served as a member of the 2nd Continental Congress. During this time, Franklin helped Thomas Jefferson write the United States Declaration of Independence.

HOSPITAL

In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Franklin helped create the first public library, volunteer fire department, university, and hospital in the nation.

COLORING PAGE

