1 Memorial Hall - Statue of William Penn

William Penn was the founder of Pennsylvania. This 18-foot, 3,200-pound statue, created by artist Janet de Coux, is a representation of Penn, not an accurate depiction of what he looked like. Read the quote on the wall behind the statue from a March 14, 1681, letter from William Penn to his friend Robert Turner.

The king named Pennsylvania in honor of whom? Admiral William Penn, William Penn's father

How is "Pennsylvania" spelled? Pennsilvania

2 Memorial Hall - "Rudy" Gates

Bucks County artist Charles Rudy designed the bronze figures on the sets of gates located on either side of the William Penn statue. Each figure depicts a distinguished Pennsylvanian, labeled with their name and an icon representing their field of expertise.

Name two of the distinguished Pennsylvanians and draw their icon.

3 Memorial Hall - Establishing Pennsylvania: Significant Documents

The documents on the curved wall in front of the Pennsylvania Charter illustrate milestones in a 109-year journey to create Pennsylvania and the form of government we know today. List one of the five documents and its significance to the establishment of Pennsylvania.

1- 1681 Charter

Significance: The 1681 Charter served as the deed from King Charles II of England to William Penn for the land that would become Pennsylvania.

2- The first frame of government, April 25, 1682, approved by William Penn

Significance: Penn's first form of government was novel, innovative and highly democratic. This document bears Penn's personal seal and signature.

3- Penn-Baltimore Agreement, July 4, 1760, approved by Thomas and Richard Penn and Frederick Calvert, Lord Baltimore

Significance: Paved the way for the famous Mason-Dixon Line.

4- Pennsylvania's First Constitution, September 29, 1776

Significance: Considered by many to be the most democratic constitution ever enacted up to that time.

5- Ratification of the US Constitution, December 12, 1787

Significance: Pennsylvania was the second state to ratify the US Constitution. As the 3rd more populous colony, its support was critical to the Constitution's success.

6- Pennsylvania's Second Constitution, September 2, 1790

Significance: Pennsylvania's second constitution laid the framework for commonwealth government as we know it today.
